

WAYS TO ADVOCATE

LOBBY YOUR MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

We rely on your combined voices to help advance social justice in Congress! Respond to NETWORK alerts—call and e-mail the Washington offices, get groups together for visits to local offices, and call local offices during the recess.

GET OUR MESSAGE OUT IN YOUR AREA

NETWORK encourages you to exercise your voice using our resources—write an op-ed in your local paper, distribute copies of our Connection “Spread the Word” page, and forward our email Legislative Updates, action alerts, and online educational materials.

VOLUNTEER IN OUR WASHINGTON, DC OFFICE

NETWORK regularly welcomes volunteers into our Washington office. If you happen to be in the area and would like to stop by, please fill out our volunteer form online at www.networklobby.org.

BECOME AN ONLINE ACTIVIST

When you join us online, you can also sign up for our weekly Legislative Updates, receive alerts to take action on issues, and gain access to our Legislative Action center.

BECOME A NETWORK MEMBER -On top of knowing that you are doing your part to build a more just nation, your investment of $50 or more ($20 for retirees, students, and those with limited income) entitles you to a membership booklet that outlines actions you can take to influence Congress, a one-year subscription to our award-winning publication, Connection, and four issues of our online e-newsletter, the InterConnection. Join Network online at www.networklobby.org/join-us.
