

Volunteer Opportunities for Retirees Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) Welcome to IVC New York serving the five boroughs of NYC, Northern New Jersey and Long Island

Your Most Important Work May Begin After You Retire

IVC in the Metro New York area is a unique volunteer organization providing participants with opportunities for fulfilling and meaningful service to others and membership in a faith sharing community united by a desire for spiritual development in the tradition of Ignatius Loyola.

IVC provides mature men and women with opportunities to serve others, to address social injustice, and to transform lives

Inspired to give back and partner with nonprofit agencies working with the poor and disenfranchised, Ignatian Volunteers offer hope and stability on a daily basis to individuals and families marginalized by the economic, educational and political realities impacting their lives.

*“Extend Your Arms In Welcome to the Future. The Best Is Yet to Come.”
Anthony de Mello, SJ*

By contributing their leadership skills and life experience in service, IVC volunteers improve their communities and create a more just society while deepening their spirituality and increasing social awareness.
